Camping Info: Cabin space is limited! Sign up immediately and indicate if you want to stay in a cabin!

Scouts may also camp outside, if preferred (no limit on outside camping).

What to Bring: Bring cold weather clothes, heavy coat, snow boots, hat, gloves, etc.
BE PREPARED; There will be snow!

Details:

1. We are not Patrol Cooking! This campout does not lend itself to patrol cooking. Instead, Scouts will be helping the Adults cook and clean up in the central kitchens.
2. You must wear suitable warm weather clothes. Temperatures will be below zero at night and in the mid-teens during the day. You must bring:

- a. Heavy winter coat
  - b. Two pairs of gloves/mittens.
  - c. 2-3 pairs of heavy socks (cotton is not acceptable)
  - d. Ski bibs or snow board attire (absolutely no jeans!)
  - e. Winter snow boots (hiking boots are not acceptable)
  - f. Winter hat
  - g. Other winter and snow gear as needed (scarves, etc)
3. Since we are inside, please bring a sleeping bag and pad (you will be sleeping on floors).
4. Eat before you come on Friday.
5. You will need to bring personal mess kits and snacks.
6. We are staying in personal homes, so Scouts will need to be on their best behavior.
7. Advancement-Scoutmaster Conferences and Boards of Reviews will be available. If your son is planning on advancing, please have him contact Scoutmaster, Doug Newcomb at a Troop meeting!
8. Activities will include, snowmobiling, snow-shoeing and tubing/sledding.
9. Rooms will be assigned.

Please remember we are guests in these homes!

This will be a great time! Sign up now with your Patrol Leader!
